

Terms & Conditions

Booking Conditions for RYA courses, Charters and Other Sailing Activities.

Your sailing course booking is with Jeff Nunn of Gib Sailing School, who is a RYA approved Commercial Yachtmaster. A completed booking form and payment of the total cost is required to secure a booking.

All bookings will be confirmed in writing by the issue of your booking confirmation and joining instructions. Course payments can be made by credit and debit card, bank transfer or through PayPal.

It is highly recommended for all students to have their own personal insurance in place to cover their time on a insurance). It is the student's responsibility to have the correct passport or visa required.

The company reserves the right to refuse any person who is deemed unable to undertake a course. This includes being under the influence of alcohol or drugs, or being disruptive to other students.

Gib Sailing School will not accept any claims for circumstances beyond its control.

Any complaints should be forwarded directly to Gib Sailing School. All complaints will be dealt with by the school Principle and any dispute not settled by both parties shall appoint an arbitrator of the British Law Society.

A cancellation must be made in writing. Cancellation within 28 days of the course will incur a cancellation charge of 100 %. It is therefore strongly recommended that you take out travel insurance which covers holiday cancellation. If a client leaves a yacht and/or abandons a course before the scheduled termination date and time for whatever reason, no refunds will be given.

If Gib Sailing School has to cancel because of circumstances beyond its control a refund will be given for the full amount (for course fees already paid) or alternative dates will be offered. Gib Sailing School cannot be held responsible for any changes in the sailing program made necessary due to weather conditions making it dangerous to sail. No liability will be accepted by Gib Sailing School for flight tickets already purchased or other incidental incidental expenses incurred. In the event of the yacht being unable to return to port, or any other agreed final destination, on time, due to weather, engine breakdown or any other circumstances, clients may elect to stay with the yacht at no extra charge, or make their own arrangements to return at their own expense. No refunds will be given for unused flight tickets.

The cost of making good any damage or loss of equipment resulting from the carelessness of the client or members of his party will be to the account of the client.

Decisions made by the skipper/instructor are final in respect of the safety of the yacht and the well-being of the crew even to the extent of requiring, in exceptional circumstances, a client or a member of the group to leave the yacht.

The yacht provided by Gib Sailing School is fully insured against accident, third party liability and personal injury due to negligence by Gib Sailing School. However, no liability is accepted by Gib Sailing School for personal accident or loss or damage to the property of the client. The client must therefore arrange his own personal insurance and details of this must be shown on the booking form.

The yacht carries Biodramina (seasickness tablets). Please check that it is safe for you and all members of your group to take Biodramina should it be advised. If you or any member of the group is in doubt, a GP should be consulted.

The client agrees to notify Gib Sailing School of any medical conditions or illness suffered by himself or any member of his group by signing the Health Declaration on the booking form. This need not necessarily prevent the student from taking a full part in the course. If a client is in any doubt about his fitness to take part in a practical course, his GP should be consulted.

In the interests of comfort and safety, smoking is not permitted below deck. Clients are welcome to smoke in the cockpit provided they are mindful of where their smoke and ash are going and do not cause discomfort to other crew members. Cigarette butts must not be thrown into the sea.

No illegal drugs, substances, objects or contraband may be brought onboard the yacht. Any person found in possession of any of the aforementioned items will be put ashore immediately regardless of location and Gib Sailing School will not reimburse, or in any way be held responsible for any costs incurred for travel or any other expenses. In addition, the person shall indemnify Gib Sailing School and the Skipper against all legal action, impoundment and loss incurred as a result.

The client must satisfy himself that adequate guidance has been given as to the suitability of the course chosen for himself or any member of his group at the time of booking.
